(SAINT)
[Eval. of EGGEN (for future use to penetrate Germ.
intell. and Party org., for which EGGEN not right man), makes statement:] not thoroughly reliable but shrewd and intelligent, trying to penetrate US intell., probably orders from his superiors~~XXX~~, attempting establish good relations with reps of Allies. Made several statements ~~XXXXXX~~ obviously not correct, which EGGEN must have know were not true. (interrog. re Germany, in general).
This eval. states that EGGEN, like other German emissaries, trying to split Allies by maintaining Russians already negotiating with Germany and "not playing fair with us." Writer believes it most dangerous even to ~~XXX~~ make it appear as though Allies willing to believe such statement and perhaps establ.
contact with high German official on basis thereof.
